As someone who has shopped at the Preston Market for over 40 years, and as a resident of Preston for over 20 years, I would be very disappointed to see the plan go ahead in its current form.

While I certainly support the 10% of affordable housing, any building over 10 stories would be grossly disproportionate for the suburb.

The redevelopment of the Preston market should be seen as a chance for revitalisation and forward thinking...not simply as an opportunity to add as many rate-payers as possible.

Cheers,
