To whom it may concern,

I am extremely disheartened, saddened and angered about the proposed development of Preston Market. The market is an icon of Melbourne and a cultural hub. The proposals will destroy the very essence that makes Preston and Melbourne's north such a special place to live.

Preston market is a lifeline for so many people, myself included. It is where I can get affordable and fresh fruit and vegetables. It is where I see my family and find a sense of community and belonging. I have lived in numerous countries throughout Asia and Europe and when I return to Melbourne the first place I visit is Preston Market.

I have now returned to Melbourne and frequently shop at Preston Market. I have chosen to live in the northern suburbs of Melbourne solely to have access to the market. It is not an overstatement to say that Preston Market is the lifeblood of the community.

I urge you to please reconsider the proposed development. If Preston market is redeveloped, Melbourne will lose a cultural hub and economic centre for the community.

I trust that my submission will be considered in good faith.

Yours sincerely,
