1317711				This is a terrible idea. 14,000 residents and only 800 will be employed in the area? It's an utter disgrace what you are allowing to happen out there. Out of that 13,000 people without jobs in the development what would you say? 6,000 odd? Maybe more will be heading to Geelong and back for work each day. The local mayor was on the radio just the other day saying what a disaster this area has been in planning thus far. Hopefully one day the developers will be required to install roads and infrastructure capable of supporting a developing community before the thing is built. God knows the people of Victoria shouldn't have to foot the bill in the future for this mess of a suburb.	2025-05-20 07:42:08
