1313827				Hi there, as an interested local can I submit the following three matters for consideration: •Most Aussie towns the size of Bannockburn, whether it be population now or in the near - future as anticipated in the Structure Plan, have at least one aquatic centre – traditionally the 'council pool' or something like that. Is there provision for anything like this in the current plan (or, provision in the DA overlay for one to be potentially built)? •I was surprised to only see provision for a single private school, and even then only P-6. Bannockburn currently only has one private school, and it is P-6. Given the growth that the plan is anticipating, I would have thought it would be prudent to assume that one or more private schools will commence, and that at least one would be P-12. Of course, often such schools are located outside the central focus of a DA plan – on the edge of town, but nonetheless it does feed into traffic and public transport considerations etc etc. •I would be interested to know if there are any provisions in the structure plan for any houses of worship. Whilst I see the generic 'community facilities' overlay, my understanding is that		NW1uNTg5YmlwZT11OG MxNjgwNTFjMTg5MjNi OGY4ZTIQ=	2025-05-08 15:28:33
