1403955				A Park very similar to the Ballarat Botanic Gardens is required in the North, only bigger... You could have the Elizabeth Gardens, sister to the Victoria Gardens... Tree Lined Streets are Essential... Eves should be a healthy distance from other Eves, so that the Great Fire of London does not repeat itself... quarter acre blocks everywhere, big enough to plant more trees, with lawns underneath.... Different Architecture is Important, having 700,000 black houses in tight little blocks creates heat blocks, where tar melts, and children are safer indoors, under air conditioning.... Colour is Important, Cool colours reflect sunlight.... a water fountain for children on hot days...		2025-10-14 00:22:25
