1453427	[REDACTED]@agig.com.au	Entering it onto this form		Dear Sir/Madam, Australian Gas Networks (AGN), a company within the Australian Gas Infrastructure Group of companies, owns and operates reticulated gas services within the vicinity of the Cardinia Creek South structure plan. AGN has no objections with the structure plan. However, AGN would like to flag the following point: Future Planning &amp; Constraints: AGN do have internal high-level plans to eventually extend the gas reticulation network to the south. However, any commitment to extend or install new assets is currently contingent on the Victorian Government's gas ban and the overall strategic future of the gas network in Victoria.		9 April 2026 1:34PM

				Please note that this is not a formal commitment to extend the infrastructure, that decision will be based upon the Victorian Government's gas objectives and policies. Kind Regards, [REDACTED]
